From Jenni Brown: Treasurer

- Welcomed Everyone
- No major changes to calendar
- Financial Report
- Blanco show shirts on back order
    - FOB programs & shirts taking precedence over show shirts
    - FOB volunteers wear Blanco shirts, old band shirts or anything red so we can be easily identified
- FOB volunteers still needed
    - Does not have to be all day
    - Looking for anyone that is willing and able to help such as students, family, friends, alumni
    - Check in at volunteer tent even if you know your volunteer location
    - This is a physically exhausting day but we need to stay positive and make the best impression for a successful event and for people to keep coming back each year.
- First competition is 09/28/19 at Byrnes. More detailed information to come prior to event
- Prop Update – Lanterns are finished & band has been practicing with them
- BOA at Lynchburg, VA will not be an overnight trip for students
    - If you choose to pick up your child after the competition, you will need to complete the permission form which is on the band website. Form is to be turned in by the Tuesday prior to the competition

From Lisa Wilkie: 1st Vice President

- All volunteers (including students) should enter through back gate, park at tennis courts and have orange volunteer pass in window.
- Shuttle Bus from BSFBC to BSHS runs from 2 pm to 11 pm.
- Check in at volunteer tent. Wear red, comfortable shoes & hat, if needed. Hydrate.
- Bring your own folding chair, not provided
- Help is still needed in spectator parking & concessions
- First band arrives at 8 am
- Put your sparkle shoes on and a happy face. Thank you for volunteering.

From Mr. Cotter: Band Director

- This year's FOB has 31 band attending and had to turn away 4 bands. Historically, in the last 3 years, we have gone from 17 bands to 23 and now 31. We are growing this event.
    - Main fundraiser of the year – Very Important
    - Bus Parking – very specific location for all bands
    - FOB is the first competition for most of these bands attending
    - Cotter will be located between the welcome tent & band room
- Students call time for FOB is 6:45 pm with white show shirts & black shorts
- Friday, 9/20 is middle school night & we're expecting 300 students in the stands
    - Please make sure if you are seated in the stands near the band to help keep an eye on the kids & keep them safe
    - The kids will be eat pizza before the game & officers will assist with serving
    - Middle school students may ride activity bus to high school

From Jon Doolittle: Ways & Means
